

Volunteering For Story Time

Preschool Storytime and Toddler Time are half-hour programs of books, music, and movement that introduce preschoolers and toddlers to the delights of the library.

We look for reliable volunteers over the age of seventeen who have clear, expressive reading voices and who enjoy entertaining young children.

We support our volunteers with training, a collection of tried-and-true materials, and a handbook of 71 ready-to-go storytimes.

Want to volunteer?

Follow the steps in the next column.

Step 1:

Exploration: Check it out! Attend a Preschool Storytime or Toddler Time at any WCLS branch library to see what it's all about.

Step 2:

Contact: Phone our children's librarian Theresa Hadley, at 384-3150 ext. 256 or e-mail theresa.hadley@wcls.org.

Step 3:

Audition and Training: Bring a picture book for your audition. If it sounds good, Theresa will give you a full orientation. (Good training for the new, good fun for the experienced.)

Step 4: Sign up for your first storytime.
